

During the June Five-Petalled Rose celebration the center immerse itself in the medieval period. If you desire to meet in the streets of the medieval knight center, jugglers comedians, shop for medieval craft markets, then the Rose Festival's right for you.

During the festival returns to the city famous Lords of Rosenberg. Those in the competitions of knightly tournaments and courts are noble women. The Renaissance spirit of medieval music is happening and the climax of festivities, a parade in historical costumes, especially the famous and historically important personages of the city. Many knights on horseback, beautiful Noble, page-boys that follow, townspeople, small babies and many others. They all represent the beautiful historical costumes.

The actual celebrations have a long lasting tradition. Do not hesitate to come to Krumlov and enjoy unforgettable experiences. Each of you will be satisfied!